Life is about making meaning from one's own experiences, knowledge and faith. It is up to us as individuals to unify with inclusivity, so we together can move forward for a more sustainable community. I am all for public safety, health and human services, parks and recreations for us all.

Many years I spent inside E.M.S. and I understand when something so important is on the line, I understand the weight of the responsibility to do what is right for the person or persons in my care that have a need.

I am always mindful to be inclusive, and to be kind. And it would be my humble honor to be a voice for 92,000 individuals inside my hometown Redding, Ca. I am open to try to rise above the political burdens so we together can share in our political benefits.

Words are seeds to be planted, and they spring actions of change, if we believe we have the fortitude to make the needed changes. So, I thank you for taking the time to learn about me and my intentions and I am open to objective reflective conversations to make sound decisions on all our behalf.
