Cathy Darling Allen, Shasta County Clerk and Registrar of Voters announces that local redistricting efforts are underway in Shasta County. This process happens every 10 years and determines which neighborhoods and communities are grouped together into a supervisorial district for purposes of electing a Board of Supervisors member.

The Shasta County Citizens Redistricting Advisory Commission has a sincere desire to receive feedback and input from the public in regard to the redistricting process and has scheduled workshops throughout the County starting July 27th. These workshops will allow the public to gain a better understanding of the process and how it may impact their community or neighborhood. The first workshop is in Supervisor District 2 on July 27th, at Happy Valley Elementary School.
